

Confirmation

I confirm that I have been informed about and have understood the following:

- Entry to Germany is currently subject to restrictions because of the pandemic. On its own, the visa issued to me does not entitle me to enter Germany.
- The visa issued to me only allows me to enter Germany if I present recognised proof upon entry that I have been fully vaccinated against the Sars-CoV-2 coronavirus (a vaccination certificate).
- The conditions that this vaccination certificate must meet have been explained to me.
- In particular, I am aware that I must have been fully vaccinated with one or more of the vaccines listed online by the Paul-Ehrlich-Institut (https://www.pei.de/EN/newsroom/dossier/coronavirus/coronavirus-content.html;jsessionid=7276511462EAB38F34BBC37B9B94A971.intranet242?cms\_pos=3) and that the last required vaccination must have been administered at least 14 days ago.
- In the case of a person who has recovered from infection, a single dose of a vaccine is sufficient. As proof of full vaccination for a recovered person, proof must be provided that they had the SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus before their vaccination. As proof of this illness, a positive PCR test must be presented.
- The vaccination certificate must be written in German, English, French, Italian or Spanish.
- Information about the exact requirements for vaccination certificates that enable people to enter Germany despite the pandemic-related travel restrictions is available online at <https://www.bmi.bund.de/SharedDocs/faqs/EN/topics/civil-protection/coronavirus/coronavirus-faqs.html>, under point IV. Restrictions applying to air and sea travel outside of Europe (entering Germany from countries that do not belong to the European Union).
- If I am not able to present a recognised vaccination certificate, I may not enter Germany and will be turned away at the German border. Furthermore, transport companies, in particular airlines, may refuse to allow me to travel to Germany.
- If I am turned back at the border upon my arrival at a German airport, the airline will fly me back to my departure airport and can charge me for the costs incurred.
- Only when someone arrives at a German airport or border do the border police officers decide whether or not to allow them to enter Germany.

Furthermore, I confirm

- 1. that, prior to entering Germany, I will have been fully vaccinated against the Sars-CoV-2 coronavirus (as described above); and
- 2. that I will submit a recognised vaccination certificate (as described above) on entry.
